How do I get a copy of the MARC schedule?

Schedules are available at MARC stations or online at mta.maryland.gov. MARC also participates in Google Transit; schedules are available within Google Maps at maps.google.com.

How can I tell if my train is on time?

Visit the MARC Tracker at marctracker.com for real-time train status information. You can also sign up for email and text alerts regarding delayed trains and service changes at mtamarylandalerts.com.

How much does the MARC Train cost?

MARC one-way fares range from $5 to $17, depending on the distance traveled. Discounted weekly and monthly passes are available for sale as well. A full fare policy, including the surcharge for travel to West Virginia and discounts for seniors, individuals with disabilities and students, is available beginning on page 18 and a fare chart is available on pages 16-17.

Where and how can I purchase a ticket?

You may purchase a MARC ticket at an Amtrak Quik-Trak ticket machine; from a Ticket Agent at Washington Union Station, New Carrollton, Odenton, BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport Rail Station, Baltimore Penn Station and Frederick; on board from the conductor (cash only); online at mta.commuterdirect.com; by calling 410-697-2212; TDD at 800-828-1120; at the four commuter stores in Arlington, Virginia and at the Mobile Commuter Store. Please see page 13 for full details about ticketing.

I did not receive all the tickets I purchased while using an Amtrak Quik-Trak machine. What do I do?

Please contact Amtrak at 1-800-872-7245. Once the automated voice begins presenting options, press "0" to speak to a reservations agent. Identify yourself as a MARC customer who had difficulty with an Amtrak ticket machine, and that you need to be connected to the Support Desk.

My MARC ticket has been lost, stolen or destroyed. Can I get a replacement?

No. MARC will not issue replacement tickets. MARC tickets should be carefully guarded and treated like cash. We encourage passengers to write their phone number on their ticket so that it may be returned to them if found by a fellow passenger or conductor.

I lost an item on the MARC Train. How can I retrieve it?

There are three Lost and Found locations for all items except lost tickets. Please call the Lost and Found office directly to inquire if a lost item has been turned in:

Washington Union Station	Sun-Sat 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.	202-906-3109
Baltimore Penn Station	Mon-Fri 7:30 a.m. – 6 p.m.	410-291-4267
Camden and Brunswick Lines	Mon-Fri 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.	410-525-1495 (voicemail available)

Please note that some Penn Line trains (9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.) operate in the evening as Camden or Brunswick Line trains. If your item is not located in Washington or Baltimore, contact the Camden/Brunswick phone number.

Lost MARC Train tickets are all turned into the MARC information kiosk, Gate B, Washington Union Station.

The MARC information kiosk is staffed on these days and times:

Monday – Friday	Saturday	Sunday
5:30 a.m. – 10:30 p.m.	8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. 2:35 p.m. – 10:35 p.m.	8:30 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.

While every effort will be made to return lost items and tickets, MARC is not responsible or liable for items left on board the train. MARC will not issue replacements for lost tickets.

WHAT TO EXPECT DURING YOUR RIDE

Safety and Security

- Passengers are not allowed to board trains at Washington Union Station or Baltimore Penn Station until the track number is posted and boarding is announced. We ask that you cooperate with station ushers by remaining within the station waiting area until the train is ready for boarding. These policies are in effect for your safety and security.
- The conductor is in charge of the train. Follow his or her instructions while riding any MARC train. Please inform the conductor of any service problems you may experience or if you need assistance prior to arriving at your destination.
- For Camden and Brunswick Line stations that require the use of a crosswalk to get to your boarding platform: passengers must be on the platform prior to the arrival of the train. Passengers who cross in front of or behind the train while it is at the station will be denied boarding. This policy is in effect for your safety.
- Improper conduct, intoxication, offensive actions or language that is objectionable to other passengers and/or the train crew or is disruptive to the safe operation of the train is not permitted. Passengers displaying disorderly conduct will not be transported and will be asked to leave the train. No refunds will be made to passengers who have been removed from the train under these circumstances.

- For your safety and the safety and consideration of other passengers, please do not stand in aisles when seats are available. Standing is never allowed on stairs or in vestibules (the space between train cars where passengers enter and exit the train). Conductors will direct standing passengers to seats when available. Please remain in your seat until shortly before arriving at your station for your own safety and as a courtesy to others.
- Be part of MTA's security campaign: If You See Something, Say Something! Visit securetransit.org for more information. If you see something suspicious, call the MTA Police at 410-454-7720. Report any suspicious individuals or behavior to the conductor, uniformed employee, police officer and/or ticket agent.
- Keep your personal belongings with you at all times.
- Be alert to other passengers and remind them if they leave any parcels behind.

Courtesy Considerations While Riding

- No seats are reserved on MARC trains. Please do not inconvenience others by holding seats or blocking seats with parcels or items of clothing, including the middle seat in single-level cars.
- Each train has one or more cars equipped to accommodate passengers who need to secure mobility devices, such as wheelchairs or walkers. Contact the conductor for assistance.
- Please do not place feet, food or beverages on seats, even when protected by newspapers or other coverings. Removing shoes does not constitute "protecting" the seat.
- Not all doors open at every station. Listen for announcements regarding which doors will open.
- Maryland law requires that all audio devices be used with a headset, and the volume kept to a level that will not disturb others while in public areas and on board trains.
- Please help keep MARC trains clean by depositing trash in designated receptacles on the train or on platforms.

Display of Tickets and Ticket Forfeiture

Passengers must allow conductors or any authorized MARC representative to inspect all tickets or cash fare receipts upon request. Tickets may be inspected more than once during a trip. Tickets must be removed from any carrying case if requested by the train crew and, if presented after date of expiration, must be surrendered. Passengers without valid tickets are subject to removal from the train, fines and/or prosecution.

Alteration or mutilation of any ticket, or obtaining a ticket deceptively for the purpose of fraudulent transportation, will result in forfeiture of ticket, removal from the train and possible fines and/or prosecution. Fraudulent MARC tickets will be confiscated and turned over to the MTA Police for investigation and prosecution.

Ticket Validity

MARC tickets are only valid between the origin and destination printed on the ticket. Any travel beyond the origin or destination point requires payment of the fare difference.

Weekly and monthly passes – no matter what the value – are not valid for travel to points other than those printed on the ticket.*

- Example: A passenger has an Odenton-Washington monthly/weekly ticket, but wants to travel from Odenton to Baltimore. His or her monthly/weekly ticket is not valid. The passenger would need to purchase an Odenton-Baltimore one-way ticket, either in advance from a ticket agent or machine or from the conductor. The $5.00 surcharge applies in this situation, except at stations without a ticket machine or agent.

Exception: Penn and Camden Line tickets are always cross-honored to same-fare destinations on both lines. Example: A Camden Line ticket from Washington to Laurel is honored from Washington to Odenton on the Penn Line. See page 23 for the Penn-Camden cross-honor table.*

The following policies apply if you wish to extend your journey beyond the destination station printed on your ticket.

One-way tickets: Passengers pay the difference between the value of the ticket they possess and the fare to the final destination.

- Example: A passenger has a Washington-Odenton one-way ticket ($6.00), but wants to travel to BWI ($7.00). The passenger would owe the conductor $1.00.

Monthly or weekly tickets: Passengers pay the one-way fare between the printed and intended destinations.

- Example: A passenger has a Baltimore-New Carrollton monthly/weekly ticket, but wants to travel to Washington. The passenger would owe the conductor $5.00 (the one-way fare between the two stations).

There is no onboard surcharge for these two types of transactions. Although the examples given above are on the Penn Line, the same policies apply on the Camden and Brunswick Line.

Passengers without proper tickets or who refuse to pay the proper fare will be removed from the train at the next scheduled station stop or denied boarding at their origin point.

Quiet Commute Car

Most rush-hour weekday MARC trains have a Quiet Commute Car, which is generally the first car behind the locomotive (Car 1). These trains are noted with a "Q" at the top of the column in the Penn and Camden Line timetables; all Brunswick Line trains have a Quiet Commute Car. Passengers in the Quiet Commute Car may not talk on their mobile phones and are required to keep all audio devices, such as laptops, PDAs and pagers, on silent mode or turned off. Text messaging or e-mailing from such devices is permissible if these devices are in silent mode (including turning off audio feedback for key strokes). Hushed conversations between passengers are permitted in the Quiet Commute Car, but should be kept at a low volume—we suggest a library-like atmosphere.

Seating is available on a first come first served basis. In the event of overcrowded conditions, and other extenuating circumstances, the conductor has the right to suspend Quiet Commute Car privileges.

The Quiet Commute Car is to be self-regulated by passengers. Please note that it is not the job of the conductors to enforce Quiet Commute Car policies. The first priority of train conductors and other staff is the safe transportation of all MARC customers. Passengers who observe behavior that does not follow Quiet Commute Car guidelines should politely (and quietly, of course!) remind their fellow passengers that they are in the Quiet Commute Car.

Restrooms

Each MARC train has at least one restroom located in the last car of the train (furthest from the locomotive). Additional restrooms are located in cars with a "9" as the third digit in their car number (e.g. Car 7896). Please do not flush anything down the toilet except for the toilet paper provided in the MARC Train restroom. This includes soda, coffee, and other liquids as well as personal hygiene products; use the trash can or sink as appropriate.

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted onboard MARC trains or inside MTA-owned stations, waiting rooms, or on MTA-owned or leased platforms. This policy includes electronic cigarettes. Amtrak policies apply at Amtrak-owned stations (Washington Union Station, New Carrollton, BWI Marshall Airport, and Baltimore Penn Station).

Children

Children under 12 years of age may not travel unless accompanied by a full-fare paying parent or guardian (16 years of age or older).

Children 12-15 years old may travel unaccompanied on trains departing their initial terminal station on or before 7:45 p.m. without transfers between MARC Trains at Union Station. The child must carry documentation listing their name, address, home phone number and the name and phone number of the person who will be meeting them. We strongly recommend the following guidelines for such travel: 1) Parents/Guardians should discuss the child's itinerary with them, 2) ensure that they understand where and when they are to leave the train, 3) who is meeting them, and 4) what to do if an emergency arises.

MARC Train conductors, staff, and management will not escort unaccompanied children to trains, supervise them during their train ride, or ensure that they detrain at the proper station. The first priority of train conductors and other staff is the safe transportation of all MARC customers; they cannot provide special supervision or oversight of unaccompanied children.

Children 16 and above may travel unaccompanied without restriction. We encourage parents and guardians to follow the same policies listed above, especially regarding emergency contact information and itinerary planning.

High school students are reminded that they are eligible to receive a Student Advantage discount, which is 15 percent off the regular one-way, weekly or monthly MARC fare. See Page 20 for more information.

Baggage

Only items which can be safely and easily carried by the passenger may be brought on the train. Large carry-on bags are discouraged on rush hour trains due to lack of storage space. Conductors and management reserve the right to deny boarding to passengers with excessive luggage in order to maintain a safe trip for everyone. The following items are not permitted on trains: non-folding baby carriages, bicycles on weekday trains (except folding bikes; see below), surfboards, skis and any items which may cause safety hazards or inconvenience to other passengers. Conductors are not required to handle luggage or any other type of baggage. Red Cap (luggage assistance) services are provided by Amtrak at Washington Union Station and Baltimore Penn Station.

Bicycles–Weekdays

Non-folding bicycles are not permitted on weekday MARC trains (see below for exceptions on select weekend Penn Line trains). Only true folding bicycles (bicycles specifically designed to fold up into a compact assembly, not exceeding 32 inches long when collapsed) are acceptable. Generally, these bicycles have frame latches that allow the frame to be collapsed, and small wheels. They are treated as all other types of carry-on luggage: you may not block the aisles or seats with a folding bicycle. For safety reasons, folding bicycles are not allowed in the overhead luggage racks. Bike lockers are also available at select stations for $70/year, plus a $25 refundable deposit after key is returned. For information, call 410-767-0572.

Bicycles–Weekend

Select MARC weekend trains have a designated "Bike Car" that can accommodate up to 26 full-size, non-collapsible bicycles, with seating along the opposite wall. For full information on the MARC Bike Car on weekend trains, please consult the Penn Line weekend timetable. Bike Car spaces are provided on a first-come, first-served basis.

Electric Vehicle (EV) Recharging Points

EV Recharging Points are available at Perryville, Baltimore Penn Station, Halethorpe, BWI Airport Rail Station, Odenton, Seabrook, Dorsey, Savage, Muirkirk and Monocacy. More locations will be added soon. Only electric-powered cars may park in these designated spaces.

Pets and Service Animals

Only small pets confined in closed carriers are permitted on MARC trains. Service or comfort animals accompanying passengers with disabilities who require the assistance of these animals are welcome on board.

Severe Weather and Special Service Schedules

During periods of severe weather, MARC may also operate the "S" (Special Service) schedules in order to maintain a more reliable service. Please note that certain trains will make additional station stops when the "S" schedule is in effect. These stops are listed in the schedule footnotes for each MARC line.

Heat Orders

Extreme changes in temperature affect the operation of MARC trains. CSX Transportation, which owns the Camden and Brunswick Lines, may impose heat-related speed restrictions, or heat orders. Trains operate 20 mph slower than normal, but not less than 40 mph. Amtrak, which operates the Penn Line, imposes heat-related speed restrictions that vary based on the intensity of the heat and location. More information on heat orders is available on our website.

MARC Riders Advisory Council

MARC riders are represented by an all-volunteer advisory council that meets monthly in Washington, DC. You may visit the MARC Riders Advisory Council website at marcriders.com or send an email to marccouncil@mta.maryland.gov.

West Virginia MARC Train Fare Surcharges

Passengers traveling to or from a West Virginia MARC station (Martinsburg, Duffields, Harpers Ferry) to or from any station in Maryland or Union Station, must add a surcharge to the regular cost of the following tickets:

$2.00 on a one-way ticket — $20.00 on a weekly ticket — $80.00 on a monthly ticket

The $2.00 one-way surcharge is incorporated in the fare chart above. To calculate weekly or monthly costs, subtract $2.00 from the fare listed, convert below, then add $20.00 or $80.00, respectively.
